Meeting called to order at 11:40 a.m.

Bruce Force welcomed first time attendees to the Presidents' Roundtable, and asked them to introduce themselves: Casey Campbell, ADDA; Clent Masterson, PTK; Glenn Helmuth, AITP; Angie Been, CMI; Darcy Hunter, Student Ambassadors; Gary Daniels, ACR; Michael Grob, Horology; and Brian Elam, CMI.

Announcements:

- Remember to submit trip insurance 24 hours in advance of departure time. Departmental trips are prepaid through the Bursar, and Club/Organization trips are CVI'd to club accounts. Once again, remember to plan in advance and submit a Campus Activity Request.
- The next Presidents' Roundtable date is wrong on the Semester Calendar, which says the luncheon is on June 7. The next meeting is June 14. Student Life will try to schedule future meeting dates for the first Wednesday of each month to avoid confusion.

Steven Rubert then asked if anyone attended last years' Okmulgee County Relay for Life that could convey what happens during the event. Kevin Hulett gave a summation about last year. This year's Relay is scheduled June 9. Rubert mentioned that the club/organization that raises the most funds will enjoy free pizza at their next chapter meeting compliments of Student Life. Force interjected that OSU-Okmulgee will have one big team at the event comprised of many clubs. He said each participating club needs to submit a Campus Activity Request. Gryder, who attended a Relay for Life a few years ago, said it was "a blast".

May Activities and Events:

- 17 Free Massage, Covelle Hall, 11 am – 5 pm
- 18 Free Movie Night, Orpheum, 7 pm
- 19 Talons Ticket Giveaway, Covelle Hall, 8 am
- 24 Free Bowling Night, Beeline, 5 – 7 pm

Kevin Monteque then spoke about Student Life's upcoming Wellness and Intramural Sports Programming. He thanked those clubs/organizations that have participated as teams in the past and encouraged advisors and club members to continue forming teams and competing. He also encouraged those who do not actually compete to come as spectators and support their favorite teams.

Dates for Upcoming Intramural Sports Programming:

- May 19 3 on 3 Coaches Meeting, Covelle Hall, 2:30 pm
- May 23 3 on 3 Play Begins, Covelle Hall, 5 pm
- June 09 Body Mass Index Testing, Covelle Hall, 9 am – 2 pm
- June 09 Softball Coaches Meeting, Covelle Hall, 2:30 pm
- June 13 Softball Play Begins, Sports Field, 5 pm

Monteque also reminded those present about SPIN Class scheduled Monday – Friday, 11:35 am, Covelle Hall.

Good of the Order:

Cathy Cherish, FCA: Members will take a tour trip to Dallas this weekend; they will have a food booth at the campus auction in June; and are planning a community service project in August to assist burn victims in Pryor.

Brian Elam, CMI: Campus Ministry International is a new OSU-Okmulgee organization, which concentrates on educating students that they are not alone in their Christian walk. Its first meeting is scheduled June 6, 5 pm, Wilson Commons.

Michael Grob, Horology: Members recently went to the Aquarium in Tulsa and are making plans to tour a clockmaker's home.

Darcy Hunter, Student Ambassadors: Ambassadors are assisting with the televised Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence event in Tulsa this weekend.

Gary Daniels, ACR: Members will assist with the dunk tank during the Fire Fighters Carnival and will tour Bluebell Ice Cream in June.

Todd Schowengerdt, ISA: Members attended a field trip to Baldor this past semester; ISA's first meeting of the semester is scheduled this Friday; members are planning tour trips this summer to Shiver Foods, Ark., Dephi in Tulsa. Baldor is great about donating parts to OSU-Okmulgee's ISA chapter. They have asked members to let them know what they need to upgrade their robotic arm. Also, new officers have been elected and the correct paperwork has been submitted to Student Life. And, members are building a softball pitching machine.

Todd Anderson, SkillsUSA VICA: Congratulations to member Charles Young, who recently was awarded Best in State for Extemporaneous Speaking. Young also is running for a national office.

Casey Campbell, ADDA: The club is in the process rebuilding.

James Thye, RHA: The RHA office is moving from one building to another; a Water Party is planned Thursday, June 1, 11 am – 7 pm at the dorms; members will participate in the Fire Fighter Carnival; will sponsor toilet bowl races at the Relay for Life; and will go on a float trip July 28-29.

Nick Farrow, NGE: Members are talking about moving LAN parties to weekdays.

Glenn Helmuth, AITP: The club is in the process of rebuilding. Most all officers graduated in April.

Sammijo Gryder, Student Senate: More club/organization participation is needed for the Fire Fighter Carnival is scheduled May 25; members are speaking to Cornerstone Classes to raise interest in membership in the Senate.

Clent Masterson, PTK: Members recently attended the International Conference in Seattle; will begin working on a recycling project called "Operation Green"; are planning a concert downtown July 13; are reading to children in the Child Care Center once or twice weekly; and recently elected new officers. Visconti asked what was being recycled. Masterson answered, "Anything recyclable." Thye asked if they needed help with the concert and Gryder asked when the next meeting was. May 22, 11:30 am, Covelle Hall Auditorium.

Matt Davis asked Gryder about the times for the Fire Fighters Carnival. 4:30 – 9 pm.

Force mentioned that he had to make a decision in the next few days about whether or not the carnival will be allowed to take place. More participation is needed to make the event a success.

Meeting adjourned 12:13 pm
